

Dear applicant for the position of Koinonia's Women's Mission Leader,

Thank you for showing interest in working with Koinonia. Below is some information on the position.

Koinonia staff need to have EU citizenship or hold the necessary visa status to allow work in the UK.

There is an occupational requirement under Schedule 9 of the Equality Act 2010 for this post to be held by a practicing and active Christian who supports the aims and ethos of the organisation.

Koinonia is an outreach of the Antioch community and as such you would be expected to participate regularly in the Antioch community life as well as receive pastoral support for your role in Koinonia from an Antioch community pastoral leader. Previous experience in student work or youth work is required.

If you are seriously considering working for Koinonia, then please send us a CV and the contact information of two people who have observed you/managed you in a university outreach environment and the permission to contact them for some references and questions.

Documents can be submitted electronically to:
joe.fahd@koinonia.co.uk or in hard copy form to:

Koinonia Director
31 Lynton Rd
Acton, London
W3 9HL UK

The deadline for application is 20 April 2017 and we will be interviewing in May.

We look forward to hearing from you. Thank you

Koinonia Trustees

JOB TITLE: Koinonia Women's Mission Leader

Posted: February 2017

EMPLOYMENT DETAILS

The Koinonia Women's Mission Leader is responsible for actively caring for the women in Koinonia, for participating in Koinonia's evangelistic work, being a proactive member of the staff team, and praying for the work.

She is accountable to the director of Koinonia and the senior female Koinonia staff.

Salary will be discussed on application.

This is a 15 hours per week position.

Start Date: 22nd August 2017

End Date: 21st August 2019 (with option to extend if all parties agree).

Given the nature of the work we operate a 3 month notice period for both Koinonia and the employee.

JOB PURPOSE

From the basis of a personal relationship and knowledge of God this job requires the candidate to:

- Evangelise: Build a core of students where relationship with God can be discovered.
- Disciple: Build an environment where students can grow in faith and discipleship.
- Build Community: Foster love, knowledge, commitment and service of the Lord and one another amongst Koinonia students.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Lead a household
- Lead and oversee small groups
- Oversee female student missionaries
- Review and monitor Student Programme with Men's Mission Leader to help implement the programme more effectively
- Oversee and initiate women's evangelism

SPIRITUALITY

- A solid relationship with the Lord.
- Be a member of a Sword of the Spirit community or be willing to participate in and explore membership of the Antioch community.
- A sincere heart for the unchurched, expressed in zeal for connecting with young students, drawing them to Jesus and coaching them in their Christian faith journey.
- Particular gifting in evangelism
- Commitment to Koinonia's vision and to ecumenism as expressed at www.koinonia.co.uk
- Emotional and spiritual maturity/ability to persevere in difficult circumstances
- Willingness to grow spiritually, receive formation and teaching and receive pastoral care themselves from a pastoral leader.

COMPETENCIES AND EXPERIENCE

- Time management skills to balance a range of professional and personal priorities
- Administrative (including basic computer) skills
- Communication/public speaking skills
- University Graduate

Application to Koinonia Women's Mission Leader

- At least 2 years' exposure to a Kairos university environment (as attendee, volunteer or staff)
- END